

HERITAGE PROFILE HONOR AWARD

Nomination Process

The Heritage Profile Honor Award recognizes individuals who have made a lasting or significant contribution in preserving, interpreting, researching, publishing, promoting, or otherwise extending the knowledge and understanding of the history of North Dakota, and have demonstrated long-term dedication and personal commitment in pursuit of these goals.

Eligibility:

Eligible individuals may be living or dead.

Nominations will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- Historical scholarship of the nominee including books, journals, and other scholarly work focusing on state and local history
- Scope of research and documentation
- Research methodology
- Overall contribution to the printed record on North Dakota history

How to Apply:

Nomination packets should include some or all of the following supporting documentation:

- Nomination Contact Form
- Narrative of the biography, contributions, and overall significance of the nominee (not to exceed three typed, double-spaced pages)
- Any additional biographical material about the nominee, including a photograph or illustration, if available
- Bibliography of published work
- Copies of articles and reviews either by or about the nominee
- Letters of support
- Other information that gives the committee an understanding of the scope and significance of the nominee's scholarship

Awards are reviewed by a committee appointed by the Director of the State Historical Society of North Dakota (SHSND). Presentations of all awards are made annually each fall at the Governor's Conference on North Dakota History. All materials submitted to the awards program become the property of SHSND, may be used by SHSND in promoting the awards program, and will not be returned.

Due Date:

Nomination packets must be delivered or postmarked by 5:00 pm on the second Friday of July. Entries delivered or mailed after this date may be held for consideration the following year. Send five copies of all materials to: Danielle Stuckle, Outreach Coordinator; State Historical Society of North Dakota; 612 East Boulevard Avenue; Bismarck, ND 58505.

For more information about the Local History Award program, contact Danielle Stuckle at 701-328-2794 or dlstuckle@nd.gov. Visit the State Historical Society of North Dakota's website at history.nd.gov.
